Love for God!

We value love for God and people, expressed not only in word but also in behavior.

(Mark 12:28-31; 1 John 3:13-18)

We value making disciples as a command given to the church in which each believer is to participate.

(Matthew 28:18-20)

A photograph of two men in a church setting. In the foreground, a man with a beard and a light-colored sweater is seated at a wooden piano. Behind him, another man in a dark suit and tie stands, looking towards the camera. The background shows a church interior with a Yamaha speaker on a stand and a vase of flowers on a table.

Grace-based Personal Relationships!

We value grace-based personal relationships that expresses a sense of community beyond Sunday morning as an essential context in which evangelism, discipleship, and leadership development take place. (Acts 2:46-47)

A woman with glasses and a dark vest over a white shirt is speaking into a microphone at a church altar. Behind her is a large wooden cross on the wall. The altar is covered with a purple cloth and has a book, a candle, and a small cross on it. The text "REMEMBRANCE OF ME" is visible on the front of the altar.

Quality Leadership!

We value quality leadership as essential for a quality ministry.
(Titus 1)
